Anna was last seen playing in the backyard of her family's home on Purissima Creek Road in rural San Mateo County, CA. A creek ran through the Waters family's property and was in the flooding stage in January 1973. However, an extensive search of the creek turned up no sign of Anna. A friend of the Waters family reported he saw two men in a white panel truck on the road just minutes before Waters vanished, but the men have never been identified. Authorities believe Waters was abducted by a non-family member.
